

Rules and Regulations

Governing the One Hundred Seventieth Annual Fair of the Knox County Agricultural Board. Every Rule laid down in this Premium List will be strictly adhered to and no exceptions whatever made.

RIGHTS RESERVED BY BOARD

The management reserves the right to postpone or cancel the time of exhibits of any class, article or animal on account of bad weather, or for any other good and sufficient reason.

No officer or employee has authority to suspend or change any rule or regulation herein adopted.

GENERAL ARRANGEMENTS

The 2021 Knox County Fair will begin at 5 P.M. Monday, July 5 and will continue for six days through Saturday, July 10. Harness racing is scheduled for Monday, July 5 at 5 P.M. and Carnival will commence on Tuesday, July 6. The Gates will open at 8:00 A.M. each day and at that time every officer will be required to be at his post.

Rabbits and Poultry to be exhibited and shown for premiums at the Fair will be on the grounds by 8:00 A.M. Wednesday, and will remain until 6:00 P.M. on Saturday. All Junior Show and Open Show cattle to be exhibited and shown for premiums at the Fair will be on the grounds by 7:00 A.M. on Friday and will remain until conclusion of their individual shows. All Junior and Open Sheep to be exhibited and shown for premiums at the Fair will be on the grounds by 4:00 P.M. on Tuesday and will remain until conclusion of their individual shows.

Animals or articles not ready in time and place will be ruled out of competition.

Exhibitor Passes are available at a cost of $10.00 and not required for livestock exhibitors.

All livestock entries will be made to the Secretary by Tuesday, June 29, seven days before the opening of the fair. Any entries made after June 29, will be charged an additional $5.00.

All entries must be accompanied with payment for entry fees, stall or pen fees.

Entry fees and all stall and pen fees must be paid in full, and no fees will be refunded in case of non-winners.

After entries have been made, no additions or alterations will be made by the Secretary, unless an error has been made, Department Superintendents reserves the right to reject any entry not satisfactory to them.

All livestock health certificates must be deposited with the Fair Secretary's Office.

Any animal deemed harmful or unsafe to spectators or exhibitors shall be removed with forfeiture of entry monies.

Every animal shown for a premium must be exhibited in the name of the bonafide owner and the party showing must be able to prove ownership for at least 30 days previous to the day of showing the animal, if called on for proof of ownership, by the Fair Association or the Superintendent of the department where showing.

No animal is to occupy a stall or pen on the grounds of the Fair Association unless competing for a premium, or there as a nurse animal for others which are competing and then the regular stall or pen fee must be paid for such animal.

No animal is to be washed or rinsed anywhere on the fairgrounds except for the designated wash areas.

This rule will be strictly enforced. If this rule is broken, the animal will be barred from exhibition and any premiums earned will be forfeited.

Premise ID number must be completed on all livestock entry forms to be eligible for participation.

Any actions of destruction or vandalism that are observed of the Knox County Fairs and/or exhibitors property may be dealt with the maximum penalty of the law.

If any exhibitor refuses to parade his livestock on request of the Superintendent in that department, he shall forfeit all rights to any premiums which he may have won or does win during the Fair. Decisions of the judge in the Department shall be final. Exhibitors may be barred from competition for finding fault with the judges' decisions. The interpretation of rules governing any exhibit shall rest entirely with the Fair Association, and its decision shall be final.

REGULATIONS

Every animal or article exhibited on the grounds shall be under the control of the Superintendent of its class; and no article or animal shall be removed from the Fair grounds without permission of the Secretary. Care will be taken to prevent loss or injury to animals or articles on exhibition, but the Association will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. No animal will be allowed to run at large on the grounds. Every animal must be entered for competition in the name of the owner or agent; poultry in the name of the owner; farm products in the name of the producer; manufactured articles in the name of the manufactured or authorized agent; textile articles in the name of the owners. When the entry of an animal or article is made, a card bearing the department, class number, etc., to which it belongs, will be furnished the exhibitor by the Secretary.

RACE TRACK

The Speed Department will be under control of the Superintendent of Speed, who will have charge of the track during the week of the Fair, except by consent of the Superintendent of Speed. The officers and agents of this Association waive all responsibility for injury to persons or animals taking part in races on the track.

Illinois Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Animal Health, State Fairgrounds - P.O. Box 19281, Springfield, IL 62794-9281.

All protests concerning entries of any department must be made in writing, accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the grounds for protesting. Protests concerning the exhibition of entries must be filed with the Management at least twenty-four (24) hours before the awards are made, and such protests will be considered before the hour of the showing. All protests against a judge's decision must be made in writing and accompanied by cash deposit of $50.00. Such deposit will be forfeited if protest is not sustained. The protest must state plainly the Cause of Complaint or Appeal and must be filed with the Grievance Committee within five hours after the award has been made. No Complaint or Appeal based on the statement that the Judge or Judges are incompetent or have overlooked an animal or article will be considered by the Grievance Committee. All questions of dispute or differences not provided for under these rules shall be referred to the Board of Directors, whose decision shall be final. In accordance with state aid regulations, no tie awards can be given for any premium offered.

ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER

Electric current for light, heat and power may be arranged for in buildings or for outside exhibits on the grounds and will be charged for as determined by our grounds electrician.

DELIVERY TRUCK

Delivery trucks will be charged $7.50 during the Fair for truck and driver, Deliveries are to be made before noon each day.

No delivery wagon will be allowed to enter the grounds at any time during the Fair unless they have paid the above fee for such privileges, or the regular gate entrance fee. Truck delivery permits are sold at secretary's office. Sale or distribution of beverages will be confined to distributors located in Knox County.

RULES GOVERNING THE GROUNDS

No person will be allowed to ride or drive on the speed ring except horses or vehicles entered in the scheduled events during the week of the Fair.

Illinois Statutes provide a penalty for any person jumping the fence and anyone caught so doing will be duly arrested, taken to the city and fined for such offense.

AWARDS

THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE SHALL USE ITS BEST EFFORTS TO SECURE SUFFICIENT APPROPRIATIONS TO FUND PREMIUMS. IN ANY YEAR FOR WHICH THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS FAILS TO MAKE AN APPROPRIATION SUFFICIENT TO PAY SUCH PREMIUMS, PREMIUM AMOUNTS MAY NOT BE ACCURATELY REFLECTED IN THE PREMIUM BOOK.

Premiums paid in Jr. Sheep, Open Sheep, Jr. Beef, Open Beef, Jr. Goat and Open Goat will be based on entries received plus any added money collected minus expenses for each division.

Awards will be made by the single judge system, unless in the judgement of the Superintendent of the Department more are required.

Judges will report to the Superintendents at the respective departments at The Published Time, on the day fixed for awarding premiums in that department.

No person shall act as judge in any class in which he may be interested as an exhibitor, or otherwise, and if such case should be presented, the Superintendent of Department may remove such interested judge, and substitute another judge temporarily.

The awards of premiums at the Fair shall be confined to entries made in the Premiums List.

No animal or article deemed unworthy shall be allowed to exhibit. The department superintendent will make the decision. No exhibitor will be allowed more than two premiums under the same class number.

First premium will be paid on one entry when considered worthy by the department and entry fee has been accepted.

Should any doubt arise as to the regularity of entry, or other important matter, which the judge feels incompetent to decide, he shall at once report the same to the Board for decision, which, when made, shall be final.

Any exhibitor showing in the Junior Department or the Open Show will be charged stall fees and entry fees as indicated in the various departments, it being understood that anyone showing in both the Junior Department and the Open show will pay only one stall fee.

The Board reserves the right to pay the premiums pro rata if the net proceeds of the Association are not sufficient to pay the premiums in full.

Temporary buying, borrowing, or hiring animals or articles to strengthen the exhibit, is strictly prohibited. Any exhibitor found guilty of violating this rule forfeits right to any premium.

Articles of Manufacture, Mechanic or Fine Arts and Agricultural products, in order to be entitled to receive premiums, must be owned or have been executed or raised by the exhibitor. The Superintendent will see that this rule is strictly enforced. Manufactured articles may be entered by agents. Persons violating this rule will forfeit the premium and will not be allowed to exhibit for two years.

Superintendents are instructed that if they shall have any good reason to believe that any exhibitor, by false entry or otherwise, attempts to deceive the judges or the public, and obtain a premium by misrepresentation, they shall report the facts to the Board, who may expel such exhibitor for fraud, for two or more years.

The decision of the judges shall be final and no appeal will be considered except in case of protest.

Objections to any person serving as judge may be submitted to the Superintendent in writing, by exhibitors in that class, prior to making any award, giving good and sufficient reasons therefore, and upon which the Superintendent shall have full power to act.

Any exhibitor attempting to interfere with the judges during adjudications will be promptly excluded from competition. All articles must be the work of the exhibitor. Any article may be excluded from the show by the Department Superintendent; if not worthy of winning a premium. Entry fee will be refunded.

Each award, and notice of protest, if any be made, must be written in plain, careful manner, by the Superintendent in ink or indelible pencil, in space opposite entry in Judge's book.

The Judge's books must be returned by the superintendent of each Department to the Secretary, properly certified to by the judges and superintendent as soon as the awards in each are completed.

Each Superintendent shall exercise great care in preserving and returning the Judge's books of the Department, as all checks for premiums are authorized only upon entries contained therein.

Upon all animals or articles the Superintendents of the several departments shall attach the ribbons as awarded by Judges.

The Secretary will not issue an order on Treasurer for premiums on animals or articles removed from exhibition before its close (unless on written authority from the President) and Department Superintendents are instructed to report to the Secretary's office any violations of this rule.

POLICING

The Sheriff and the Illinois State Police shall have charge of the police forces on the grounds, and attend to preserving order and enforcing the rules of the Association, The Marshal and Policemen shall be sworn in conservators of the peace, and it shall be their duty to arrest anyone creating disorder, or violating any of the rules of the Fair, or the laws of the State.

The police will patrol the grounds each morning before opening of the gates.
